Honorable Arch A. Moore, Jr.
House of Representatives
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Mr. Moore:

Since our last correspondence regarding [redacted]
we have received new application forms from him.

We have reviewed his file with offices interested in individuals of his general background but have not located a suitable spot for him. Our recruitment activity is concentrated at the junior officer level and there are not many opportunities for entry at a level more in keeping with [redacted] talents and abilities. Our Director of Personnel has advised [redacted] this effect and we are enclosing a copy of his letter for your information.

Thank you for bringing [redacted] to our attention. Although the present outlook is not encouraging, we shall be glad to keep him in mind for future openings.

Sincerely yours,

Lyman B. Kirkpatrick
Inspector General
